The Einhell PXC battery 4.0 Ah with two universal 18 V rechargeable batteries is part of the PXC series and offers twice the power with li-ion cells. These cells resist the self-discharge otherwise typical of this kind of battery, the service life of the batteries is extended by adapting the charging cycles to the specific application situation. The proactive battery management system maximizes the safety of the system, and all the parameters of the battery are monitored with state-of-the-art components, featuring a 3-level LED system that provides a overview of how much power is left. The housing offers protection against bumps and knocks and makes the batteries easy to grip. The molded, recessed grips make it easy to handle the batteries.
