The Einhell TE-CD 18/48 Li-i-Solo cordless impact drill driver is a valued allrounder for all screwdriving/drilling work and has also an integral impact drilling function for universal work. As a PXC family member it can be used with flexibility far away from the nearest socket outlet and is always ready for action thanks to the li-ion technology with zero self-discharge. The 2-speed gear unit provides plenty of power for drilling + screwdriving and a blow rate of up to 24,000/min. It also has speed control to enable the speed to be adjusted to each specific material/application. Optimum operation in dark areas is ensured by the LED lighting. battery and charger are available separately, for example as practical starter-kit.
